

COMPUTATIONAL AND GENOMIC BIOLOGY DESIGNATED EMPHASIS PETITION FOR ADMISSION

The following must accompany this petition:

- A letter of recommendation from your faculty advisor
- A one-page letter of intent summarizing your research interest and background in Computational and Genomic Biology
- Curriculum Vitae
- Up-to-date copies of your undergraduate and graduate transcripts
- Graduate Petition for Change of Major or Degree Goal (Office of the Registrar)

Submit application materials to:

Kate Chase
Graduate Program Coordinator
574 Stanley Hall, MC 3220
Phone: 510-642-0379
Email: katechase@berkeley.edu

S.I.D. #: _____ Major: _____ Advisor/PI: _____

Name: _____ Phone: _____ Email: _____

(Last, First, Middle)

Admission Date (to current PhD program): _____ Anticipated Qualifying Exam Date or Semester&Yr: _____

Previous degrees received (specify degree, institution, major, date degree conferred):

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Proposed Area of Study: _____

Proposed Committee Members. At least one, preferably two, Graduate Group faculty members must represent the Designated Emphasis on the student's Qualifying Examination and Dissertation Committees.

Proposed Representative(s) on Qual Exam Committee: 1. _____ 2. _____

Proposed Representative(s) on Dissertation Committee: 1. _____ 2. _____

Proposed Coursework. Students are required to complete 3 courses in 3 specified subject areas. At least two courses must be outside of the student's regular program. Courses must be taken for a grade. After approval of the course list below and admission to the DE, courses may be substituted with prior approval. The categories and minimum course options are listed on our website, <http://ccb.berkeley.edu/academics/designated-emphasis/>.

Course 1: _____ Course 2: _____ Course 3: _____

Signature of Applicant _____ Date _____ Signature of Faculty Advisor/PI _____ Date _____

For Office Use Only

Application Received Date: _____

Approved Denied Effective Date: _____